HAPPENINGS IN THE CAPITAL'S SUBURBS

Reception Given the Rev. A. E. Spirlman, New Pastor of Trinity M. E. Church.

ALEXANDRIA, April 20 .- The reception given by the congregation of Secretary Baker Attends Early Trinity Methodist Church to their new pastor, the Rev. A. E. Spielman, attracted a large number of persons to that church last night. Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, gave the address of welcome for the ministerial association of the city, to which the Rev. Dr. Spielman responded. A musical program was given in which Mrs. Sherman B. Fowler, Miss Lucy Graves, Miss Janeet Gronau, Stephen Field, and Willard Blewitt, took part. The Stars and Stripes and Gowers were employed in the decora-

An oddly attired young man, wearing long hair, who gave his name as Aime Slatkin, his birthplace as Jerusalem, his age as twenty-three, and said he was a globe-trotter, was taken into custody by Chief of Police Goode and Officer Rawlett, vesterday suspected of being a vagrant and pos-sibly a spy. At the police station he was found to have $235 in his pockets. He was questioned closely by a representative of the Department tice at Washington, who was notified, but it was said he would be set at liberty today.

Concrete Railroad Trestle Being

Work of replacing the old wooden railroad treatle at the Government Hospital for the Insane with a large concrete one is under way. Heretofore it has been impossible to get a sufficient number of coal cars on this siding at one time to keep a large supply of coal on hand, but with the new construction this condition will be eliminated.

A motion picture presentation of the play. The Man Who Forgot," will be given this afternoon and tonight in the Masonic Hall, under the auspices of the local churches, Boy Scouts, and W. C. T. U.

Employes of the Government Hospital for the Insane are being given passes, which must be shown for admittance to the grounds. The authorities also are placing additional guards about the grounds, and every gate will be closed.

The children of the Episcopal Home for Children will be taught scientific farming, beginning tomorrow.

139 CADETS BECOME U.S. ARMY OFFICERS

Graduation of West Point Seniors.

WEST POINT, N. Y., April 20 .- One hundred and thirty-nine cadets were graduated from the United States Military Academy today and took their places as lieutenants in the new army being formed to fight Germany.
They are members of the class of 1917 which expected to be graduated in June nexts with all the pleasant features incident to a West Point "June week" ceremony. Instead, the men marched to their auditorium un der the grim, business-like, war at-mosphere which pervades the school since hostimies with the Germans

These hundred and thirty-nine are the survival of the fittest—those who have been able to stand up under the constant grind of West Point severity and they are only a part of the class that entered four years ago nex.
